

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We are grateful to Mr Milinda Banerjee¹, Department of history, Presidency University for sharing his insights on the relationships and meanings of the Gajan Festival held at the Sandeshwartala Temple during the Bengali New Year in his paper titled “A Political God in Action? Shandeshwar Jiu Temple in Chinsurah and its Gajan Festival” . Read more

We are also thankful to the following people who gave us their time and came forward to share their stories with us on the videos.

Ms. Tista Das – Department of History, Hooghly Mohsin College
Sri Srikanta Mandal (History Teacher Duff School)
Sri Ranjith Pal (Ex history teacher Duff School)
Sri Saptarishi Bannerjee (local history enthusiast)
Sri Gopal Halder (Master moshai) Head priest of Shandeshwar Tala Temple
Sri Bannerjee (Priest of Seal family)
Sri Satyendra Mohan Seal (One of the owners of Seal Bari)
Sri P.K Mandal (Owner of Mandal bari)
Sri Dilip Datta (Owner of Narendra Bhavan)
Sri Aurobindo Ghosh (Advocate, Seben Brother's Lodge)
Sri Mandal (Owner of Mandal Family –Jora Ghat)
Sri Arindam Deb (Son in law of Mandal Family –Jora Ghat)
Smt. Sreeti Halder (Owner of Upna Villa)
Sri Shankar Narayan Bairagi (folk singer)
Sri Sameer Chatterjee (Rickshaw puller)
Nirmal Majumdar (Rickshaw puller)
Dilip kumar Naik (Rickshaw puller)
Students of Hooghly Mohsin College
Students of Hooghly Collegiate School
Students & faculties of Hooghly Madrasah Chinsurah
Local citizens of Chinsurah

Photography & Videography: Aishwarya Tipnis Architects

Ashim Chakrabarty
Meghna Chatterji
Udit Sarkar
Samragee Paul

¹ Mr Milinda Banerjee defended his PhD in November 2014 in Heidelberg University